

Gichana, Phyres Nyanchama

+254 748 230 695 | phyllisnyanchama2000@gmail.com | Location: Nairobi, Kenya

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

A motivated and results-oriented Medical Engineering graduate with a Bachelor of Technology in Medical Engineering, graduated on 20 July 2023. Possess hands-on experience in technical sales of infection prevention and control equipment, biomedical engineering support, customer engagement, and healthcare solutions. Skilled in understanding client needs, delivering technical product presentations, providing after-sales support, and building long-term professional relationships. Passionate about combining engineering knowledge with sales expertise to improve healthcare delivery and drive business growth. Currently leveraging strong customer relationship and communication skills in the banking sector while seeking to return to a rewarding career in medical technology sales.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Technical Sales
- Business Development
- Customer Relationship Management
- Product Positioning
- Consultative Selling
- Sales Presentations
- Excellent Communication Skills
- Relationship Building
- Negotiation Skills
- Problem Solving
- Client Needs Assessment
- Proposal Preparation
- After-Sales Support
- Market Research
- Territory Development
- Time Management
- Team Collaboration
- Adaptability
- Attention to Detail
- Analytical Thinking
- Professional Integrity

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Technical Sales Engineer Intern

July 2024 – January 2025

Meditec Systems limited

Key Responsibilities

- Promoted infection prevention and control equipment to hospitals and healthcare institutions.
- Conducted product demonstrations and explained technical features and benefits to healthcare professionals.
- Assisted clients in selecting suitable medical solutions based on their operational needs.
- Prepared quotations and followed up with prospective customers.
- Supported installation, commissioning and user training for supplied equipment.
- Worked closely with clinicians, procurement officers and biomedical engineers to ensure customer satisfaction.
- Identified new business opportunities and participated in sales visits across different healthcare facilities.

- Provided after-sales technical support and maintained strong customer relationships.

Key Achievement

- Contributed to successful promotion and adoption of infection prevention and control solutions within healthcare facilities.

Business Banker

January 2025 – Present

KCB

Responsibilities

- Driving acquisition and growth of Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises (MSME) portfolio through tailored financial solutions.
- Prospecting, onboarding, and relationship management of SME customers to support their business growth.
- Cross-selling KCB products including digital lending, credit cards, insurance, and deposit mobilization.
- Conducting market activations, customer visits, and financial needs assessments.
- Achieving and surpassing sales targets while ensuring excellent customer experience.
- Maintaining compliance with KCB policies, credit risk procedures, and regulatory requirements.

Transferable Skills

- Relationship management
- Sales and customer engagement
- Communication
- Negotiation
- Problem-solving

Volunteer- Medical engineer

March 2023– June 2023

Sayyida Fatimah Hospital

Responsibilities

- Assisted biomedical engineers in preventive maintenance of medical equipment.
- Supported equipment inspections, servicing and troubleshooting.
- Participated in equipment inventory management and documentation.
- Assisted healthcare staff with equipment operation where required.

INDUSTRIAL ATTACHMENTS

Biomedical Engineering Attachment

Mewa Hospital (January 2022 – March 2023)

- Preventive maintenance of hospital equipment
- Equipment calibration support
- Fault diagnosis and repair assistance
- Medical equipment inventory management.

Biomedical Engineering Attachment

Kisii Teaching & Referral Hospital (January 2021 – April 2021)

- Assisted in servicing diagnostic and therapeutic equipment
- Participated in equipment installation and commissioning
- Worked alongside biomedical engineering professionals in hospital operations.

EDUCATION

Technical University of Mombasa

Bachelor of Technology in Medical Engineering

Graduation Date: 20 July 2023

TECHNICAL SKILLS

- Biomedical Equipment Maintenance
- Preventive Maintenance of Medical Equipment
- Corrective Maintenance and Troubleshooting
- Medical Equipment Installation and Commissioning
- Equipment Calibration and Performance Testing
- Infection Prevention and Control (IPC) Equipment
- Sterilization and Disinfection Technologies
- Medical Equipment Inspection and Quality Assurance
- Equipment User Training
- Technical Product Demonstrations
- Biomedical Equipment Inventory and Asset Management
- Hospital Equipment Management
- Medical Equipment Documentation and Reporting
- Product Application Support
- Technical Sales Support
- Tender Documentation Support
- Healthcare Technology Solutions
- Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- CRM (Customer Relationship Management) Systems

PERSONAL ATTRIBUTES

- Excellent communication skills
- Self-motivated and results-driven
- Fast learner
- Confident presenter
- Customer-focused
- Highly organized
- Able to work under minimal supervision
- Willing to travel extensively
- Positive attitude
- Strong work ethic

REFEREES

Available upon request.