

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Bonface Nyakundi

Email: bonfacemomanyi540@gmail.com

Phone: 0748411038

Address: Kabiria, Nairobi, Kenya

PERSONAL PROFILE

I am a motivated and hardworking Bachelor of Science in Microbiology graduate from the University of Eldoret (Class of 2024), with a strong background in laboratory research, microbiological analysis, and customer service. I am passionate about science, public health, and sustainable development.

I have developed excellent communication, organizational, and analytical skills through both academic and professional experiences. My flexibility, teamwork ability, and strong work ethic enable me to adapt easily to different environments and work effectively under pressure.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Bachelor of Science in Microbiology

University of Eldoret — Graduated in 2024

Attained Second Class Honors.

Key subjects: Microbial Genetics, Immunology, Environmental Microbiology, Parasitology, Virology, and Biotechnology.

Gained practical experience in laboratory techniques, data analysis, and research reporting.

Kenya Certificate of Secondary Education (KCSE)

Nyakongo Boys High School — Graduated in 2019

Scored B- (Minus).

Held leadership roles in science club activities and environmental projects.

Kenya Certificate of Primary Education (KCPE)

Machururiati Primary School — Completed in 2015

Scored 247 marks.

INDUSTRIAL ATTACHMENT

Regional Veterinary Laboratory, Eldoret — May to September 2023

Position: Laboratory Attaché

Key Responsibilities:

Assisted in culturing, isolation, and identification of bacteria from various samples.

Conducted microscopic analysis, media preparation, and sterilization procedures.

Supported antibiotic sensitivity testing and biochemical characterization of microorganisms.

Helped maintain accurate laboratory records and ensured compliance with safety protocols.

Participated in research projects related to livestock and zoonotic diseases.

Key Skills Gained: Research methodology, laboratory technical skills, teamwork, and report writing.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Sales Officer – Mogo Company, Nairobi

July 2025 – February 2026

Responsible for promoting and selling motorcycle and car loan financing products to clients.

Maintains strong relationships with customers and ensures high levels of satisfaction.

Provides product guidance, loan follow-up, and after-sales support.

Achieved monthly sales targets consistently through effective communication and marketing strategies.

Gained strong negotiation and problem-solving skills.

Direct sales representative -AA Kenya PLC

Automobile Association of Kenya

Promoted and sold company products and services to new and existing clients

Educate customers on membership benefits and driving school programs.

Achieved and exceeded sales targets through effective customer engagements

Handled customer inquiries and resolved complaints professionally

Maintained accurate records of sales and client interactions

Loan Officer

Phoenix Credit Limited |2026

Key Responsibilities and Achievements:

Acquired and managed clients through active marketing and relationship building.

Conducted credit assessments and evaluated clients' financial capability before loan approval.

Processed loan applications and ensured accurate documentation and compliance with company policies.

Managed loan portfolios and followed up on repayments to maintain healthy account performance.

Provided financial guidance and customer support to clients regarding loan products and repayment plans.

Prepared reports and maintained accurate client records and financial data.

Contributed to business growth by meeting sales and portfolio performance targets.

Strengthened customer relationships through effective communication, negotiation, and problem-solving skills.

SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES

Laboratory and Research Skills: Culturing, microbial identification, biochemical testing, microscopy, sample analysis.

Customer Service Skills: Professional communication, client management, and conflict resolution.

Sales and Marketing: Product promotion, customer retention, and meeting sales targets.

Computer Proficiency: Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and basic data analysis tools.

Communication and Interpersonal Skills: Strong verbal and written communication; excellent teamwork abilities.

Environmental Awareness: Knowledge of environmental health and safety practices.

Flexibility: Can work effectively in diverse environments and under minimal supervision.

CAREER OBJECTIVE

To build a rewarding career in microbiology, research, or customer service, where I can apply my scientific knowledge and interpersonal skills to contribute to organizational growth and societal development. I aim to continuously develop professionally through learning and hands-on experience.

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

Reading scientific journals and personal development books

Volunteering in community and environmental projects

Engaging in outdoor sports and teamwork activities

REFEREES

1. Dr. Emily

2. Lecturer, Department of Biological Sciences

University of Eldoret:0722931952

2. Mrs.Peris

Supervisor, Regional Veterinary Laboratory – Eldoret

Tel: 0722433281

3. Mercy Jepkosgei Kandie

Branch Manager, Mogo Company, Nairobi Tel: 0700829142