

JARED KIPNGETICH

Biomedical Engineer | Technical Sales Engineer

Nairobi, Kenya | +254 769 162 754 | rotichjared22@gmail.com | Kenyan Citizen

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Biomedical Engineer with hands-on experience in medical equipment installation, commissioning, preventive maintenance, troubleshooting, calibration, user training, technical sales support, customer engagement, tender preparation, and after-sales service. Proven ability to work closely with hospitals, clinics, and healthcare professionals to identify needs, recommend appropriate medical technologies, and ensure optimal equipment performance. Strong communication, presentation, relationship-building, and problem-solving skills with a passion for technical sales and business development within the healthcare sector.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Medical Equipment Sales & Technical Consultations
- Product Demonstrations & Presentations
- Customer Relationship Management
- Business Development & Territory Expansion
- Medical Equipment Installation & Commissioning
- Preventive & Corrective Maintenance
- Tender Preparation & Technical Proposal Support
- User Training & Capacity Building
- Healthcare Technology Solutions
- Negotiation & Stakeholder Engagement
- Regulatory Compliance & Quality Assurance
- Problem Solving & Analytical Skills

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Biomedical Engineer Technician & Sales Representative – Kings Ophthalmics Kenya (Nov 2025 – Present)

- Provide technical support for ophthalmic diagnostic and surgical systems across hospitals and clinics.
- Conduct equipment installation, commissioning, calibration, troubleshooting, and preventive maintenance.
- Prepare technical specifications, quotations, and tender documentation in collaboration with suppliers.
- Deliver structured end-user training and technical demonstrations.
- Support customer consultations, after-sales support, and relationship management.
- Build and maintain relationships with healthcare facilities and key stakeholders.

Biomedical Engineer Intern – The Nairobi Hospital (Dec 2024 – Oct 2025)

- Supported preventive and corrective maintenance programs across multiple clinical departments.
- Assisted in vendor coordination, procurement evaluation, and technical proposal review.
- Contributed to calibration, safety testing, and service report preparation.

Biomedical Engineer – Kenyatta National Hospital (Sept 2023 – Dec 2023)

- Assisted in installation, testing, and calibration of imaging and patient monitoring systems.
- Supported equipment inventory documentation and technical reporting.

Biomedical Engineer (Industrial Attachment) – Kirinyaga University (May 2021 – Aug 2021)

- Performed laboratory equipment maintenance and calibration.
- Supported technical demonstrations and documentation processes.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Biomedical Engineering – Kirinyaga University (2020–2024)

Kenya Certificate of Secondary Education (KCSE) – Murgusi Secondary School, 2019 (B Plain)

PROFESSIONAL ATTRIBUTES

- Strong understanding of medical devices and healthcare technologies.
- Excellent communication, presentation, and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to build trust and maintain long-term client relationships.
- Self-motivated, proactive, and results-oriented.
- Willingness to travel and develop new business territories.
- Strong organizational and time management skills.
- Team player with a commitment to continuous learning.

REFEREES

1. Dr. Janerose Muriuki – Head, Medical Engineering, Kirinyaga University
Tel: 0757 987 354

2. Eng. Jared Ogweche – Deputy Head, Biomedical Engineering, Kenyatta National Hospital
Tel: 0724 863 343

3. Eng. Treva Adudah – Head, Biomedical Engineering, The Nairobi Hospital
Tel: 0711 113 398