

RHONA MERCY NGATIA

Nairobi, Kenya | Phone +254 729 168 545 | ngatialorna@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Two years' experience installing, calibrating, and repairing biomedical and laboratory equipment in hospital and clinical settings. Skilled in preventive and corrective maintenance, troubleshooting, and user support. Experience includes anesthesia machines, dialysis machines, ventilators, oxygen concentrators, defibrillators, and laboratory analyzers. Also involved in sales of consumables and medical equipment across departments.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Sales Engineer/customer service coordinator | Lued (A) Chemicals Ltd

Nairobi, Kenya
Sep 2024 - Present

- Market and promote Vazyme diagnostic equipment and consumables to hospitals and laboratories, covering clinical, surgical, and laboratory departments.
- Engage directly with clients through visits, demonstrations, and technical discussions to explain product features and applications.
- Prepare tenders and quotations by reviewing client specifications, matching suitable equipment, and drafting cost and delivery details.
- Provide first line troubleshooting and servicing for equipment sold, including calibration and minor repairs, to support continued use.
- Record sales activities, service interventions, and client feedback to support follow-up, reporting, and future proposals.
- Contribute to departmental targets by balancing equipment sales with after-sales service and customer support.
- Liaise with internal teams to address client needs, enhancing service delivery and boosting customer satisfaction.
- Managed calls from healthcare facilities, assisting with orders for medical supplies reagents and equipments.
- Handled customers complains, assessed issues and escalated them when necessary to support efficient problems resolution and service improvement.

Sales and Service Engineer/ | Imm Care Ltd

Nairobi, Kenya
Oct 2023 - Jun 2024

- Marketed and sold laboratory equipment and consumables, engaging directly with hospitals and diagnostic centers.
- Prepared quotations and participated in tender processes by aligning product specifications with client requirements.
- Installed immunoassay analyzers and trained users on basic operation and maintenance.
- Repaired and serviced electrolyte and hematology analyzers, performing calibration and troubleshooting to restore functionality.
- Provided after-sales support through client visits and follow-up calls, ensuring equipment remained operational.
- Maintained records of sales activities, service interventions, and client feedback to support reporting and future proposals.

Biomedical Engineer (Intern) | Gertrude Children's Hospital

Nairobi, Kenya
Feb 2021 - Apr 2021

- Monitored and maintained theater and imaging equipment.
- Performed preventive maintenance in ICU, theater, and laboratory departments.
- Serviced oxygen plant and assisted with installation of theater lamps.
- Completed departmental documentation to support maintenance records.

EDUCATION

Kenya Medical Training College	Kenya
Diploma in Medical Engineering Technology	2022
Kenya Medical Training College	Kenya
Certificate in Medical Engineering Technology	2018

SKILLS

-
- Installation, calibration, and servicing of biomedical and laboratory equipment (e.g., analyzers, ventilators, concentrators).
 - Preventive and corrective maintenance, including troubleshooting and minor repairs.
 - Sales and marketing of medical equipment and consumables across laboratory, surgical, and clinical departments.
 - Preparation of tenders and quotations, aligning product specifications with client requirements.
 - Client engagement through product demonstrations, technical discussions, and after-sales support.
 - User training on equipment operation and basic troubleshooting.
 - Documentation of service activities, maintenance records, and sales follow-up.
 - Coordination with suppliers and internal teams for sourcing and delivery of equipment and consumables.
 - Basic electrical installations and repairs in hospital settings.
 - Handling customer enquiries and service coordination in a medical supply company.

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATION

AMEK Membership Certificate
Association of Medical Engineering of Kenya.

REFEREES

-
1. Rhoda Karii — Human Resource: Tel: 0700809891.
 2. Peter Wachira— Head of Technical Department: Tel: 0702123889.